1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

2. The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner:

The German or foreign language legends need to be removed from the drawings. Also, the numeral 5, used in the second paragraph of page 5, need to be added to figure 1 identifying the control circuit at the bottom of figure 1. In order to avoid abandonment of the application, applicant must make these drawing changes.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The references cited on the PTO-892 teach other system that affect rheological properties.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach a system capable of influencing rheological properties that includes the specific combination of a controlled impact system that introduces mechanical oscillations into the material, has an acquisition system that acquires a rheological property of the material and uses the acquired property to actuate the impact system wherein the acquisition system includes a means for determining either the transverse velocity and the pressure of the material, or the transverse velocity and the shear stress if the material.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
